St Martin de Belleville

Directions

From Geneva airport follow the FRANCE signs on the autoroute A41. I recommend taking the motorway past ANNECY, taking the ALBERTVILLE turnoff at Junction 16. Follow the motorway past the lake at Annecy to Albertville about an hour on where you follow the signs for Moutiers/ Tarantaise.

D117 route (recommended when dark or in snowy weather - if it raining in Moutiers in the 6 months of winter it will definitely be snowing a few hundred metres up the road as you gain altitude).

At Moutiers exit J40 signed 'St Jean de Belleville, St Martin de Belleville, Les Menuires and Val Thorens'.

Take the D117 up the hairpins past St Jean de Belleville, La Flachere, La Combe and the 'aire du chainage' layby, then over the bridge. About 2.5km from St Martin de Belleville town turn left on the apex of a hairpin signed D96 for St Laurent de La Cote. Drive down through La Rochette, PlanVillard and the next hamlet is St Laurent de la Cote. Go past the church of St Laurent (to the right) and the large hut at the side of the road, the Poubelle, has parking bays next to it. Chalet3Valleys is the lowest house in the village.

D96 Route The other way in is via the back road, the D96. Go into Moutiers, follow the signs for Vallee de Bozel (middle of three lanes heading in to Moutiers) where the road will sweep you right (Moutiers town centre on your left). Go past the Elf Garage and out of town past the Super U supermarket on your right.

Take the next turn on your right opposite the White Water rafting centre at Chardon Loisirs, signed to St Laurent de La Cote on the D96.

This is a narrow cliffhanging and scenic road but is the quicker way in, about 15 minutes. Better done in daylight where you can see the hairpins (or not, so you can't see the drops!). From that direction St Laurent is the first hamlet that you pass through. Park in the bays next to the Poubelle, or in the unlikely event that these are busy in the little lay by further down the road.
